BIOGRAPHY

Who? Ciudad Feliz and Silver City are the two prominent production aliases of Fernando Pulichino and Julian Sanza. They started to produce house music in 1996 as Ciudad Feliz in their hometown of Mar del Plata, Argentina, and released their debut album "Barrenador" in the year 2000 through Buenos Aires label Estatus Discos.

It was at the Miami Winter Music Conference 2000 that they began to move further into their recording career as they got signed to Jef K's Silver Network label in Paris. Later that year they also got signed for Canadian labels "Stickman" and "Aquarius".

These early releases caused a stir amongst the international house scene and some of the tracks have been featured on some high profile compilations around the world. In June 2002, they signed a three single and one album deal under the new name "Silver City" with 2020Vision, the accomplished label, from Leeds, UK, where they are currently based.

At the moment they are promoting their recent releases with their live sets and DJ sets around UK and Europe. They are also playing Bass and Keyboards along Ralph Lawson and Dubble-D on a live project called 2020SoundSystem. And setting up an interesting label project with their brother Lucas Konk West... With KW Records & KW2 Records.
